Editor and Proprieto

duty and means to do it.

GRESS.

The indications are favorable for an

It is hardly probable that the dis-before it has begun. In the present attitude of the administration, it must member of Congress. Upon all questions of issue between the President people; because he has turned hi

STABBING AT LAMONTE.

William Baker-An Old Difficulty With a Probable Deadly

Termination-Statement of the

PROBABLY FATAL WOUND.

BAKER'S STATEMENT.

Accused.

TO SUBSCRIBERS We have adopted and will strictly adhere to the following rules:

All subscriptions for the Weekly Bazoo and his own party, the Democrats are must be paid for in advance.

All papers will be promptly stopped upon the expiration of the subscription, unless notification of senewal, accompanied by the made, because the President has had cash, is received previous to such expira- the manliness and honesty to give stopped at that date.

The time of expiration is printed with back upon carpetbag thieves, upon each direction, and subscribers may rest as ignorance and lawlessness, and desured that the paper will be promptly clared in favor of justice, honesty and deprived of other elements of support SOCIAL JIM JAMS. in the South, has gone down, the sin It is doubtful if there was ever a of the event belongs not to the Presi- excited about is a devil of a thing. more appalling spectacle than that of dent, but to those who cling to a polita man delirious with the horrors of ical organization, which in that secmania a potu. The natural decay of the tion of the Union was founded in intellect leaves some remnant of manhood in the wreck. The ruin, however bayonets. The President has very fixed in the Happy Hunting Grounds. sad, has on it the shadow of divinity. properly held that a party that is de-But in the lurid glare of eyes fevered pendent upon such agencies as these by the fumes of alcohol - in the confor preservation, is an outrage upon vulsions of a body racked by the terrible anguish of imaginary terror, horrified by phantom shapes, which concivil service reforms stand in any better vert the beauty of the world into a light before the people. The public demon's festival, the mind sees nothhave not so soon forgotten the horrible ing but a subject for shuddering excesses of the Grant administration. amazement. So it is, only in a less its nepotism, its whisky rings, its Sanmarked degree, with those moral hallucinations which people society with and Treasury larcenies, saturating, as them. religious frenzy, and diseases the mind it did, the civil service of the country with the belief that the shadowy phanwith a web of infamy and dishonesty toms of other worlds ever come to visit the inhabitants of this. But Mr. Haves proposes to reform these riage. there are people who not only enter-disgraces, no matter in how slight a tain this absurd fancy, but who look degree, he will have the support of mind contrives to get along with very part of humanity who look with incredulty upon the goblin haunted mania. A few years ago the man or his party, but for the simple reason needle to thread the sea when it had woman who would gravely sit down that the country demands these re- no eye? to a spiritual seance with ghosts and forms, in the interest of political honspooks, would have been looked upon not esty and public decency. only as a lunatic, reasonless and absurd, The Marshall Democrat regards but an unfortunate who imperatively Hockaday's vindication as too thin demanded restraint. That it is not The light of Day shines through it. so now, is perhaps owing to a greater There are none so blind as those who keeping abreast with the decree of tolerance and liberality of opinion will not see. than is either wise or good for society. For spiritualists are multiplying in the same ratio that insanity is spreading. As in the days of the Mexican Ineas, when messages were dispatched from spirit of the Bohemian Annanias one part of a vast kingdom to another

ing that they are the avant courier of a great religious reformation more potent in its results and grander in its

Martin Luther fired the superstition moral conflagration fiercer than even that of the crusades, the civilization of Christianity. They are the Peter the Hermits of a social fanaticism which is peopling our asylums with incurable maniaes, and our households with goblin haunted lunatics. Of all species of insanity these social Jim Jams, are

The man whose religion enables him to stay at home and keep the baby while his wife goes to church, thinks he's anchored to the Rock of Ages.

ought to settle the Tonic.

of the centuries, and rescued from

There is to be a Methodist Quarterly meeting in Marshall next month, and it is to be hoped it will exorcise the which haunts the newspaper offices by swift running couriers, who relieved each other at intervals, so these social Th Chaplain of the Senate, the Jim Jams have evolved from their other day dove-tailed a little prayer It is a remarkable fact that short weird imaginings an idea that our dead for Morton in an appeal for the soul of sermons make the most popular friends have been converted into phan- Bogy. This is giving the father of preachers. tom runners between earth and para- the bloody shirt a footing in heaven dise, with no other mission in heaven under false pretences. than to fetch and carry the idiotic vaporings of long-haired lunatics and If Clay Dean is "the father of the linery bills. spectacled old maids. Some of them Greenback theory," Martin Williams have even gone so ar as to suppose must be the mother of the rag baby. own is most anxions to get those of that the spirits of the other world are Like Dickens' nurse, H. Martin pre-other people. so profoundly interested in what is serves his character on the ground that going on in this, that they have his offspring "was such a little one."

erected a goblin telegraph on which dispatches can be obtained direct from The Episcopal Church has practithan fighting. heaven fresh and say, as those in a cally disfranchised its female members. morning paper. The effect of these No woman who has not attained the remarkable teachings upon society is age of twenty-five years can hold an too mournful for ridicule. Weak in- office in it. Whoever heard of a lady tellects fired by the vain glory of re- of that age?

ligious mania, are deluded into believ-The St. Louis Insurance companies. having got rid of all their outstanding liabilities, are preparing to resume achievements than was that with which

> A Boston shoe dealer has manufac tured a brogan forty-two inches in length. It is intended for the wedding lipper for a St. Joe belle.

The Warrenton Banner occasionally makes a mistake and gives credit for a good thing to one of its exchanges : but it is a very rare occurrence.

The Warrensburg Journal-Democrat has entered upon its second year, and bids fair to live long and prosper; and what is better, it deserves to.

The St. Louis newspapers have the Ben Butler wears a button hole bou- most wonderful faculty of developing quet in the vain hope that the odor of littleness in their jealousy of each the flowers will disinfect his reputa- other of any journals in the country.

Like a veritable stag hound, the St. The Boonville Advertiser gives us a Louis Journal is still hot upon the slot two column editorial on finance. That of that game old buck, Gen. Hocks-

THE PRESIDENT AND CON-A kitchen on wheels is a rolling res-

A lady's back hair is the top knot entire harmony of thought and feeling between the President and Congress, The message is a clear, explicit state-

Until you break the chills, the fever ment of facts, admirably free from partisan sentiment, and indicative of Lotta as Deslemena, was a very the purpose of a man who knows his small success. Domestic economy is easier taught affected Republicans will seize upon than practiced. the opportunities afforded by the extra session to make an attack on the ad-The most expensive article in a famministration. There is nothing in the ily is the dresser. message which affords them the slight-The courage of duty is the noblest est pretext for such an undertaking, entiment among men. and both Blaine and Conkling are far too wise to pick up a quarrel which Filling a dog's mouth very often will result in their discomfiture almost takes bread from a child.

The Czar prefers to go into winter. draw to its support every Democratic quarters at Constantinople.

One enjoys Indian summer best where there are no Indians.

with the President, not because it will It is only the cashiers who steal tend to weaken Radicalism, although millions that are respectable.

that would be a most desirable object, A rift in the clouds on a rainy day but because the issue will have been is like a glimpse of sunshine.

Russia has at last made up her mind back the South to the rule of its own to take Kars for Constantinople. The Turks are using Poles to agitate the Russian bear in the rear. Sitting Bull has consented to treat. decency. If the Republican party, Now the Commission can "smile."

The fish the New Yorkers are so

Sister Sankey has journeyed with Little Henry towards the rising sun.

age. Nor will an issue made upon his doesn't set towards the Missouri river.

born contracts, its Indian swindles but they have very taking ways about unparalleled in any age or nation. If has ever made a comedy out of "Mar-

It will soon be time for the author wife is to him, till be pays her mil- went over to the school room and assaulted

The man who has no opinions of his eral who is more noted for running give the mother rest. Price, 25 cents.

attitude to take.

It is a remarkable fact that no lady with an ugly ankle is ever seen on a muddy crossing.

Centennial celebrations come but once in a hundred years, but then they last forever.

Gilman, the New York forger, was a musical dilettante, and very naturally goes to Sing Sing.

Joseph in his flight overcame seventeen hundred and fifty miles to be discomfited by one at last.

A Mr. Fyse married a Miss Drum in Montreal. They ought to have nusic wherever they go.

The Syrian Bedouins are noted for their lawlessness. They will always to going there made it an express stip Bedouin something had.

him on a railroad committee.

OLD JACK.

BY ROOM PEARLE.

I'm only Jack, "old Jack," they call me, And though I'm scarred and rough, Yet somehow thinking over life I find it monstrons tough.

The world is a lonesome place to be When a men is growing old, And he hasn't a wife, a chick, nor child, Has neither land, nor gold,

I wonder many a weary day. As I toil through min and son, if i shall always end at tacke-And commence again at one? I grow so tired of a crust to eat.

and a pallet made of straw. That when Hook on rich mea's hourds There's somethin' seems to graw. And Dinder doubt if He who rules

I hate asyself for my back of taith But it will not let me rest. I've thought and thought, and it seems to The journey is hardly plane

"Dooth all for just the best"-

It holds so much of joy for some And for others so much pain. I used to dream of a happy home Where I could come and go, A wife perhaps, and children dear,

-But that was long ago. The happy home-well, never come Nor wife, nor children dear, My brant's love died-what can this be On my old check, a tear?

I used to dream of a future time When I could take my ease, And not be "dray" from morn till night The will of others to please.

But fortune is ever a fickle rade, And her smiles are hard to win. She keeps aloof from an honest man,

And gives her heart to sin. I wouldn't care, but I hate to think, I've missed the where and when To rest, or work when the humor suits,

Along with backier men. I am like a withered tree, perhaps, Where the woods are cleared around. I won't be left but a year or so

To camber the useful ground. And I s'pose there's naught for me to do But wait for the call to go And trouble not my mind with thoughts

That nobody exces to know. I'm only Jack, "old Jack," they call me, And though I'm searred and rough, Yet somehow thinking over life.

Explosion in a Mill.

I find it monstrous tough.

The Moberly Murphies have given stone to atoms, scattering the pieces in up the Enterprise-Monitor people in degree and falling broke and falling broke to the Enterprise Monitor people in degree and falling broke and falling broke to see the control of the stone to atoms, scattering the pieces in this interprise was present with talking on the platform of Harris & Haynes' by this time it began to be whispered that the form in the spirit their requested, and falling broke to see Jack about devery direction. One piece was thrown drinking shortly after coming to Sedalia as it would be a needless expense to Mrs. against the ceiling, and falling broke through the floor. The burrs had not at-Young widows are not dishonest, the explosion, and it is believed that some of a wife and two small children have been evil-minded person had during the night on the verge of starvation, and but for the placed some explosive compound between them for the purpose of injuring the mill.

Boucleault is the only man who has ever made a comedy out of "Marriage."

The man who never changes his them who never changes his the new hor her the paradox of injuring the min.

The work of reform is heard through the dades they would have suffered for the never suffered for the never suffered for the new and state through the dades, took out a pistol. There were several persons in the does, took out a pistol. There were several persons in the store who saw has some of its the paradox of injuring the min.

A short time ago I wrote' an article un.

A short time ago I wrote' an article un.

Who neveral occasions of late the poor woman has gone out and taken in washing in order to acquire something to feed her thought that in telling the truth, I was thought that in telling the truth, I was here to acquire something to feed her the above melodious title, and really thought that in telling the truth, I was here to acquire something to feed here the paradox of the p has become an imperative necessity in Feir grounds Saturday afternoon. He was rageous violence, striking her more than a polite to other people's wives than to and Callaway, and up to the present time, of "Beautiful Snow" to put in an ap- Cough Syrup may cure you, as it has done worthless vagabond until now against the years. In this connection, too, a large man chained my legs together. others. It costs little and can never harm, entreaties of her parents who offer her a

A Woman on Her Muscle.

Last week the school teacher at Pilot Knob, whipped a boy for some offense against the rules of the school. The mother of the boy, upon learning of the matter, the teacher, giving him a number of earnest slaps and blows. The teacher com-

Howard is the only American gen- Syrup would relieve the child and thereby

-One of our most estimable citizens may be thankful for the introduction of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, for its timely use has Fought the Nomination The Enterprise-Monitor is advised that Clark and Crittenden fought Randall's nomination to the girth. They did well in making such a fight, and their constituents taking again. that Western ideas will never prevail, nor Western interests be guarded so long as a Pennsylvania protectionist is invested with the power of shaping legislation by appointing the congressional committees.

-Queen Victoria grows more and more Sedalia, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 23d. exclusive. This year she visited a fashionable resort named Lockmarce, but previous for the occasion, and those who love to trip empty during her stay. The hotel-keepers, guaranty of a good time is necessary. They regard Senator Armstrong as with the crowds who are always eager to follow in the path of royality, agreed to the condition. and her Majesty had the place to herself.

connection with the ball, there will be a splendid collation spread, to refresh the coat was inner man. Go everybody, and have a jolly the condition. and her Majesty had the place to herself.

A BAD MAN.

A Cruel Husband Mistreating an A Revolation From Paradise of a R. G. Yocom Patally Injured by Unfortunate Wife-An Old Offender in His Favorite Role.

A few weeks ago the Bazoo gave an and was sent to the asylum at Fulton. She surpassing belief. The living in the neighborhood say that he and is fast driving her back into insanity if not the grave. Yesterday he went home and commenced smashing up the furniture, and actually kicked his poor half demented wife out of doors. The niece of the abused lady came down town and procured

HER LIFE A TORTURE

A WARRANT FOR HIS ARREST, and Deputy Cunstable Allen into custody. When the savage brute saw at him with it. But Conners was not a poor half crazy woman, and Miller didn't strike. Indeed in second thought he concluded to make no resistance.

A BRUTAL DEED.

He Beats His Wife With a Strap. and Then Jumps the Train.

A few weeks ago a man by the name of tained their maximum speed at the time of since. Several times, his family, consisting parties be stopped. assistance rendered them by charitable ladies they would have suffered for the

Nevada Leber: Nathaniel Hackney had upon a heavy leather strap which was to are certainly as deserving of an honorable walked across the street into Penquite's laid away, never more to do service his leg broken and ankle dislocated at the belt a chest with, and beat her with out-

A Conductor's Bad Luck. plained to the proper authorities; the woman plead guilty and paid $15.

Mothers will grow weary and sigh over

The orner as I can recollect.

THE orner as I can recollect.

THE orner as I can recollect.

THE OTHER SIDE.

R. G. Yocom is thirty-eight years old, sider might find it rather difficult to decide and come from Mt. Sterling, Ky., and folprecipitated into a ditch. It took at the precipitated into a ditch. It is hardly sould be exceeded, and come from all, other and is a possible that it could have been overlooked, and the precipitated into a ditch. It is hardly sould be exceeded, but this could be exceeded, but the two, for of course, the goose would be the head to be the precipitated into a ditch. It is hardly sould be the sould be exceeded, but the two, for of course, the goose would be the head to be the precipitated into a ditch was the man and which the "goose," lows the business of a teamster; and is a good peaceable citizen, he has a wife, but the two, for of course, the goose would be the head to be the two precipitations. His friends give very nearly the same account of the origin of the difficult to decide which was tert growing and growing and growing and growing and come from all, other which was tert growing and come from all, other which was tert growing and growing and come from all, other which was tert growing and come from all to be the business of a teamster; and is a good peaceable citizen, he has a wife, but the two, for of course, the goose would be the head to be the precipitation. His friends give very nearly the same account of the origin of the difficult to decide which was tert growing and growing an than fighting.

Missouri Postoffices.

When people have very little reputation, they are naturally sensitive about losing it.

The St. Louis Journal is making war on the gambiers. This is a game war on the gambiers. This is a game to the same arrand but he left in discouring the same arrand but he left in discouring the same arrand but he gambiers. This is a game to the same arrand but he left in discouring the same arrand but he gambiers. This is a game to the same arrand but he left in discouring the same areas and the passenger which lad just gone into a ditch, and he had to take a side track until that was got on the rails again. This was effected after several hours delay, and Conductor Fleming again to the same account of the origin of th on the same errand, but he left in disgust terday before matters were put on a running about ten days ago. There are accusations against Beach, the present incumbent, but the depot. But it did arrive here at last, lend a hand at darning their own stockings. ciently recent date. The Hannibal post- and Conductor Fleming considers that he and all the large men in the Universe can office is still in a condition of doubt and has achieved no ordinary feat in bringing it not successfully compete with them.

Little men appear better in the undecision. In Kansas City they seem to in. He is fairly impressed with the idea than large men, for they never have had have peace. At least Col. Van Horn says that the road bed is bewitched or the train "cub" age when their legs were so long they they do not want a change there. itself is doomed to misfortune.

A Narrow Escape. A young man named Tim Hanlen is reported to have made a narrow escape from death, Friday morning. In attempting to the cow catcher he would have lost his life. not likely to emay the dangerous under-

Railroad Employes Band and Ben-

There will be a grand Ball and Banque given by the waves of the railroad engineer in the hall of the new engine house, in East A SPIRIT'S CONFESSION.

Dred Done in the Body-The Spook of a Newspaper Man.

It will be gratifying to the newspaper account of a m n who was shamefully fraternity of Missouri to learn that the abusing his invalid wife, and when the mystery that has so long enshrouded the neighbors threatened to take him out and death of Frank Barnum, once the publisher ficulty occurred at Lamont between Willash him for his misconduct, he ceased his of an evening paper in Kansas City, has liam Baker and R. G. Yocom, which will persecutions. This man's name is Miller, been at last cleared up by the revolations probably terminate in the death of the He is a carpenter and works in the M , K. of a spirit which came all the way from latter. As nearly as the reporter & T. His wife, about a year ago, became Paradise for that very purpose. It will be could ascertain from a multiplicity of con-

A RICH WIDOW recovered her reason and a short time an ler insisted that his wife should make over he was advised by his physicians to visit into a difficulty, in which Yocom was stabto him a small amount of property which the now famous watering place, the Sweet hed in the left groin with a butcher knife, tion, to one family at least, for looking if she did so he would dispose of it and The Sweet Springs then didn't have the then abandon her, she has persistently re- reputation powersed by it now, but the The wounded mon was taken into Penfused. This has so enraged him that he curative faculties of its waters were just quite's drug store, where Dr. Jaynes dressed tion was the ornament of a Kentucky bride,

A hatchet, the weapon used by the mur-derer, was found near by. His money, watch and valuables were undisturbed. Detectives were put upon the track, but nothing further has been developed than that the deed was committed by two colored men, who were traced as far as Chicago and there lost sight of.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnum were believers in the officer he seized a hatchet and made Spiritualism, and Mr. B. had often asserted

He was released on bail to appear Mon- Naturally Mrs. B. consulted a medium to She had two chibiren and I had one; we spirit and the manner of his death could About two months ago. Dave Henline, One night, frenzied by the demon which be found. It is stated that the departed John Yankee and myself went to the Knobs, possessed him, he insulted a young gentlegentleman himself appeared upon the and while there, met A. P. Wyatt and he man who was dancing with

Wednesday morning of last week, just af- Jack Simpson, following the trade of a car- ther announced that grief and remorse had The spiritual control of the medium furstarted to grinding, an explosion of the burnstones occurred, breaking the upper river and rented a little cabin south of the burnstones occurred, breaking the upper river and rented a little cabin south of the bir in the spirit world a penitent sinner.

Mr. Have proposes to reform these disgraces, no matter in how slight a degree, he will have the support of every Democratic member of Congress; not because the issue will have the support of gress; not because the issue will have the support of the simple reason his been made between the President and have his party, but for the simple reason that the country demands these reforms, in the interest of political honhis leg broken and ankle dislocated at the belt a chest with, and heat her with outFeir grounds Saturday afternoon. He was holding a team for Sandy Thomas, when one of the herses caught the rein of the brisone of the herses caught the rein of the brisdle under the end of the tongue, pulling the screams distinctly. Several gentleman were disconnected with it, but the coit by the floral hall, and giving a short turn, they headed for the timber. Mr. Hackney, in jumping from the wagon received the injuries as above stated. His wounds were attended to by Drs. Warth and Callaway, and up to the present time, he is getting along as well as could be expected.

Never give up the ship. Dr. Bull's frail and delicate, she has clung to the tice hourly daily and weekly for a hundred They treated me very well although they confortable home. But by this time possi-bly she is again under the shelter of a roof which it is the misfortune of her life she after walking to the very farthest in front store, and they saw Yocom go to the drawer growing around her. There are other in pew, that the parties he has been convoying have seated themselves in the first vaing have seated themselves in the first vatrouble. Let's all stay in here and not see Conductor Fleming left Lexington last cant seat near the door, because of his it," and they did stay in until they heard exercised upon the fortunes of it," and they did stay in until they heard bearing is easier and more graceful.

Little men make the best of tailors, be- occurred as near as I can recollect.

As dancing mastern, little men are par execllence, and as trampa, they are far more lakely to escape notice while stealing a ride, than large men. Finally, little men are last night. like musquitos, useful because they give the world employment in striking at them, and considerate, because they are always heard

If, however, there should be ame eadersone or two little men whose ideas of tic continent are not prope carried out in my "sequel," at any time I satisfied that publ and make the emends honorable.

"A little farm, well tilled A little man, well willed, Give me! give me!"

-Mexico Intelligeneer: A little fellow

DAILY BAZOG

The oldest daily paper in the city, an tensively read throughout the cent: ction of the State, by business men, and reling all classes, it offers inducement advertisers as the best medium through ich to reach the public.

TERMS OF SUNDAY MORNING BAZOO: me year,

AN OPAL RING.

The Story of an Unlucky Jewel-A Grand-Mether's Legacy and What Came of it -A Pettis County Heir Loom.

From time out of mind the onal has About 7 o'clock Friday evening, a difbeen considered unlucky. The newspapers have been full of stories about the wenderful misfortunes that have followed in its train. Of course a great many of them are exaggerated, and, perhaps, some remark ble insane, and it is now believed, through remembered that after leaving the newspatradictory statements, the facts in the case Be that as it may, the Bazoo has a story to relate about an opal ring which, so far as Baker and Yccom were enemies, and coincidence goes, tends, in no inconsiderable recovered her reason and a short time since and embarked in the more prosaic pursuit meeting accidentally, on the platform of degree, to confirm the prevalent superstition upon the opal as

> A PATAL LEGACY. a cruelty the same, and Mr. Barnum journeyed in that the wound, and then had him carried to his residence, where he now lies perstition with which it is now associated in a critical condition. It is alleged by did not prevail, or a grandmother would from them. He had been absent about a some and denied by others that the wounnever have requested that her favorite week when his wife and friends were start- ded man fired at Baker before the latter grand-daughter should be married with it, led by the announcement that Mr. Barnum used the knife. As there is so many contra-had been foully murdered by persons un-dictory statements regarding it, the repor-carved into the likeness of Hecate, and the known, and his body pa tially slid into a ter interviewed Baker at the jail last night fiery serpents which wound and twined and obtained from him the following state. about the beautiful head in the midst of angry darting flames, was, to say the least

A STRANGE BRIDAL GIFT. My name is william Baker, was born in in that way, and was worn by her on the oc-England, and am 33 years old the 21st of ension referred to. And now comes the next November. Came to this country ten years ago; first stopped at Alton, Ills., and then went to Denison, Tex. About four years ago I came to Sedalia, and went trom here to Lamonte. I followed my the stopped in a duel before he had ever seen the stop business as shoemaker in all these places the face of his unborn daughter. He grew he would return to convince his unbelievinto the butcher business in Lamonte. I the parest and best women in the world, and friends of the truth of the hereafter have a wife and four children. I married her life for the two years in which her hus-scene and related that he had been killed and I had some difficulty. We were all ball, in Lexington. A duel followed, and and his bely thrown into the pond by the "full" and I don't know exactly what it the unhappy man was killed. A few two colored men, as supposed, and further was about; as we came home I was thrown months later a daughter was born to the that they were prompted to do the deed by one who had long got back the quarrel was renewed, when Yocom came up and work was swifter, and not less deadly. In took part in it. We less than a year after marriage, her hus have never liked each other since, although band perished by his own hand, the victin drinking shortly after coming to Sedalia as it would be a needless expense to Mrs. and has led a worth'ess vagabond life ever since. Several times, his family, consisting parties be stopped.

It would be a needless expense to Mrs. B., that further search after the guilty and I got to scuffling in fun; it turned into an ignorant delusion, which pride—perhaps started across the street to Penquite's drug started across the st his revolver. I was correct in this impression, for he went into the rear room where who, while yet a child, removed with her the portoffice is kept, and from a drawer in mother and grandparents, to Missouri, and Corsets are now worn high. This is die under the end of the tongue, pulling the screens distinctly. Several gentleman were in an acceptable manner, but he never, but that any decent man could. Then I lady who ownes it, guards it as jealously spoke to Bill Wise and told him I would go from her daughter's touch as if it was a never would be able to glide along—in the

must be left to dealers in occult ville, which was robbed by a bur Every article of value was taken away passe sor of this fatal jewel would be glad to get rid of it on any terms, and she tainly would but for another strange that is connected with it. One sur naturally begets another, and the lady who rived there early yesterday morning and but as a bridal present to her daughter that culty reached Sedalia Deputy Sheriff took the prisoner into custody. He then

EXCITEMENT AT LAMONTE.

Deputy Sheriff Shy says the difficulty

ted no end of excitement in Lamor and the town was literally crowded with country people. There was a grange meeting in the town, and this possibly contributes largely to the gathering. The deputy is satisfied that public sentiment goes with

It is believed that Baker has quite areer. He acknowledges himself that he legs show the marks of many a hard en-knees were so shakey that they felt as if it summoned witnesses and a preliminary She would be a privilege to die and he com- trial was had. The facts as revealed were her to make it the medium of her dat fortably buried and consequently their as stated here, thunsel of the surplusage unhappinese, but she does feel be In view of these facts, if there is anything more remarkable than the story already told, it is the singular determination of the young lady who in the natural course of events will be the legitimate possessor of this wonderful gem. She affects to believe that the legend is an abourd superstition, and that the series of fatalities which have with which it had no connection, and she is firmly determined that if she ever marries which she is very littly to do, the opa shall be her wedding ring—just to prove, a she says, that the whole story of its being unlucky is a bundle of absurdities.

While her mother lives, it is hardly per able that she will ever be able to carry calloused and knotted like a wind-galled to withhold her from the desperate venture, homes in to be attributed to this practice. A and the egal may yet be destined to add anfew months ago he wrestled with a gentleman in this city, and got the worst of it. | connected with its history. Who knows?